ONLY IN VEGAS: CASA FUENTE

Las Vegas is a city of contrasts, and Casa Fuente is no exception. The cigar lounge is a place where the old and the new meet, and where the cigar is king. The lounge is a place where you can relax and enjoy the view, or where you can get down and dirty. The lounge is a place where you can be a part of the action, or where you can just sit back and enjoy the show. One of your stogie-loving buddies is having a party and you're in charge of the entertainment. He's too old for a clown and too married for a stripper, so how about arranging for his own private cigar roller? New York-based CF Dominicana Cigars has launched its trademarked "Cigar Catering" service, providing on-site cigar rolling for special events nationwide.

Cigar rollers at special events have been increasing in popularity — New York Met Mike Piazza had a torcedor at his wedding — and CF Dominicana has become the first company to make it a specialty. With a roster of talented rollers in every major American city, and services that include graphic design for the event and custom-designed cigar bands, the company brings a personal approach to a growing trend in event planning.

"There has always been a demand for cigar rollers at events," declares Dennis Briganti, president of CigarFlavors.com, Inc. which owns CF Dominicana, "but no one in the industry ever thought creatively enough to meet that demand." And there is demand in some high places: CF's Cigar Catering has been utilized by the cast and crew of "The Sopranos" and "Sex and the City," spirits manufacturers Johnnie Walker and Dewar's, and a confidential roster of celebrity clients. The service is available in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Las Vegas, and several other cities. For details, visit www.cigar-catering.com.
